Secretary to Government,
Law Department,
BANGALORE.

SIR,

Recd 2/11.

I am directed to state in conformity with the amendments to the law regarding mortgages in Mysore made by Act No.XVI of 1938 the Judges of the High Court in accordance with the recommendations of the Rule Committee propose to make the amendments set out in the enclosure in Order XXXIV of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, and in Appendix D to the First Schedule to the Code.

The proposed Rules and Forms are similar to those in force in British India with suitable modifications. They were published in the Mysore Gazette of 24 October 1940, and the suggestions received have been considered by the Judges.

I am to request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction to the proposed amendments under section 126 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS.

Under Section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the High Court with the previous sanction of Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore makes the following amendments in Order XXXIV of the Code of Civil Procedure and in Appendix D to the First Schedule of the Code :-

1. In Order XXXIV in the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, for rules 1 to 15 the following rules shall be substituted, namely --

PROPOSED ORDER XXXIV OF THE CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

Parties to suits for foreclosure, sale and redemption.

Rule 1.- Subject to the provisions of this Code, all persons having an interest either in the mortgage security or in the right of redemption shall be joined as parties to any suit relating to the mortgage.

Explanation - A puisne mortgagee may sue for foreclosure or for sale without making the prior mortgagee a party to the suit; and a prior mortgagee need not be joined in a suit to redeem a subsequent mortgage.

Preliminary decree in foreclosure suit.

Rule 2 - (1) In a suit for foreclosure, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court shall pass a ~~(preliminary)~~ decree—

(a) ordering that an account be taken of what is due to the plaintiff at the date of such decree for:—

(i) principal and interest on the mortgage,

(ii) the costs of suit, if any, awarded to him, and

(iii) other costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by him up to that date in respect of his mortgage security, together with interest thereon; or

(b) declaring the amount so due at that date; and

(c) directing —

(i) that, if the defendant pays into Court the amount so found or declared due on or before such date as the Court may fix with within six months from the date on which the Court confirms and countersigns the account taken under clause (a), or from the date on which such amount is declared in Court under clause(b), as the case may be, and thereafter pays such amount as may be adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges and expenses as provided in rule 10, together with subsequent interest on such sums respectively as provided in rule 11), the Plaintiff shall deliver up to the defendant, or to such person as the defendant appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property, and shall, if so required, re-transfer the property to the defendant at his cost free from the mortgage and from all incumbrances created by the plaintiff or any person claiming under him or, where the plaintiff claims by derived title, by those under whom he claims, and shall also, if necessary, put the defendant in possession of the property; and

(ii) that, if payment of the amount found or declared due under or by the preliminary decree is not made on or before the date so fixed, or the defendant fails to pay, within such time as the Court may fix, the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest, the plaintiff shall be entitled to apply for a final decree debarring the defendant from all right to redeem the property.

(2) The Court may, on good cause shown and upon terms to be fixed by the Court, from time to time, at any time before a final decree is passed, extend the time fixed for the payment of the amount found or declared due under sub-rule (1) or of the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest.

(3) Where in a suit for foreclosure subsequent mortgagees or persons deriving title from, or subrogated to the rights of, any such mortgagees are joined as parties, the preliminary decree shall provide for the adjudication of the respective rights and liabilities of the parties to the suit in the manner and form set forth in Form No.9 or Form No.10, as the case may be, of Appendix D with such variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

Final decree in foreclosure suit.

Rule 3 - (1) Where, before a final decree debarring the defendant from all right to redeem the mortgaged property has been passed, the defendant makes payment into Court of all amounts due from him under sub-rule (1) of rule 2, the Court shall, on application made by the defendant in this behalf, pass a final decree -

(a) ordering the plaintiff to deliver up the documents referred to in the preliminary decree, and, if necessary,—

(b) ordering him to re-transfer at the cost of the defendant the mortgaged property as directed in the said decree, and also, if necessary,—

(c) ordering him to put the defendant in possession of the property.

(2) Where payment in accordance with sub-rule (1) has not been made, the Court shall, on application made by the plaintiff in this behalf, pass a final decree declaring that the defendant and all persons claiming through or under him are debarred from all rights to redeem the mortgaged property and also, if necessary, ordering the defendant to put the plaintiff in possession of the property.

(3) On the passing of a final decree under sub-rule (2), all liabilities to which the defendant is subject in respect of the mortgage or on account of the suit shall be deemed to have been discharged.

Preliminary decree in suit for sale.

Rule 4. - (1) In a suit for sale, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court shall pass a preliminary decree to the effect mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c)(i) of sub-rule (1) of rule 2, and further directing that, in default of the defendant paying as therein mentioned, the plaintiff shall be entitled to apply for a final decree directing that the mortgaged property or a sufficient part thereof be sold, and the proceeds of the sale (after deduction therefrom of the expenses of the sale) be paid into Court and applied in payment of what has been found or declared under or by the preliminary decree due to the plaintiff, together with such amount as may have been adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest and the balance, if any, be paid to the defendant or other persons entitled to receive the same.

(2) The Court may, on good cause shown and upon terms to be fixed by the Court from time to time, at any time before a final decree for sale is passed, extend the ti fixed for the payment of the amount foun or declared due under sub-rule (1) or of the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest.

Power to decree sale in foreclosure suit.

(3) In a suit for foreclosure in the case of an anomalous mortgage, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court may, at the instance of any party to the suit or of any other person interested in the mortga security or the right of redemption, pass a like decree (in lieu of a decree for foreclosure) on such terms as it thinks fit, including the deposit in Court of a reasonable sum fixed by the Court to meet the expenses of the sale and to secure th performance of the terms.

(4) Where, in a suit for sale or a su for foreclosure in which sale is ordered, subsequent mortgagees or persons deriving title from, or subrogated to the rights o any such mortgagees are joined as parties the preliminary decree referred to in sub-rule (1) shall provide for the adjudi cation of the respective rights and liabilities of the parties to the suit in the manner and form set forth in Form No. Form No.10 or Form No.11, as the case may be, of Appendix D with ~~which much~~ such variations as the circumstances of the case require.

Final decree in suit for sale.

Rule 5. - (1) Where in a suit for sale, payment is not made in accordance with the preliminary decree within the time fixed or extended by the Court, the Court shall, on application made by the plaintiff in this behalf, pass a final decree directing that the mortgaged property or a sufficient part thereof be sold, and that the proceeds of the sale be dealt with in the manner provided in sub-rule (1) of Rule 4.

(2) Where on or before the day fixed or at any time within 30 days from the date of a sale held in pursuance of a final decree passed under sub-rule (1) of this rule, the defendant makes payment into Court of all amounts due from him under sub-rule (1) of rule 4, the Court shall, on application made by the defendant in this behalf,

(a) order the plaintiff to deliver up the documents referred to in the preliminary decree.

and, if necessary,

(b) order him to transfer the mortgaged property as directed in the said decree, and also, if necessary,—

(c) order him to put the defendant in possession of the property.

(3) Where the mortgaged property or part thereof has been sold in pursuance of a decree passed under sub-rule (1) of this rule, the Court shall not pass an order under sub-rule (2) of this rule unless the defendant, in addition to the amount mentioned in sub-rule (2), deposits in Court for payment to the purchaser a sum equal to five per cent of the amount of the purchase-money paid into Court by the purchaser.

Where such deposit has been made, the purchaser shall be entitled to an order for repayment of the amount of the purchase-money paid into Court by him, together with a sum equal to five per cent thereof.

Recovery of balance due on mortgage in suit for sale.

Rule 6. - Where the net proceeds of any sale held under the last preceding rule are found insufficient to pay the amount due to the plaintiff, the Court on application by him may, if the balance is legally recoverable from the defendant otherwise than out of the property sold, pass a decree for such balance.

Preliminary decree in redemption suit.

Rule 7. - (1) In a suit for redemption, if the plaintiff succeeds, the Court shall pass a preliminary decree

(a) ordering that an account be taken of what is due to the defendant at the date of such decree for

(i) principal and interest on the mortgage,

(ii) the cost of suit, if any, awarded to him, and

(iii) other costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by him up to that date, in respect of his mortgage security, together with interest thereon; or

(b) declaring the amount so due at that date; and

(c) directing

(i) that, if the plaintiff pays into Court the amount so found or declared due on or before such date as the Court may fix within six months from the date on which the Court confirms and countersigns the account taken under clause (a), or from the date on which such amount is declared in Court under clause (b), as the case may be, and thereafter pays such amount as may be adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges and expenses as provided in rule 10, together with subsequent interest on such sums respectively as provided in rule 11, the defendant shall deliver up to the plaintiff, or to such person as the plaintiff appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property, and shall, if so required, retransfer the property to the plaintiff at his cost free from the mortgage and from all incumbrances created by the defendant or any person claiming under him, or, where, the defendant claims by derived title, by those under whom he claims, and shall also if necessary, put the plaintiff in possession of the property; and

(ii) that, if payment of the amount found or declared due under or by the preliminary decree is not made on or before the date so fixed, or the plaintiff fails to pay, within such time as the Court may fix, the amount adjudged due in respect of subsequent costs, charges, expenses and interest, the defendant shall be entitled to apply for a final decree —

(a) in the case of a mortgage other than a usufructuary mortgage, a mortgage by conditional sale, or an anomalous mortgage the terms of which provide for foreclosure only and not for sale, that the mortgaged property be sold, or

4. And it is hereby further ordered and decreed that, in default of payment as aforesaid of the amount due to the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to apply to the Court for a final decree—

(i) *[in the case of a mortgage by conditional sale or an anomalous mortgage where the only remedy provided for in the mortgage-deed is foreclosure and not sale) that the defendants jointly and severally shall thenceforth stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all right to redeem the mortgaged property described in the Schedule annexed hereto and shall, if so required, deliver to the plaintiff quiet and peaceable possession of the said property ; or

(ii) (in the case of any other mortgage) that the mortgaged property or a sufficient part thereof shall be sold ; and that for the purposes of such sale the plaintiff shall produce before the Court or such officer as it appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property ; and

(iii) *(in the case where a sale is ordered under clause 4(ii) above) that the money realised by such sale shall be paid into Court and be duly applied (after deduction therefrom of the expenses of the sale) in payment of the amount payable to the plaintiff under this decree and under any further orders that may have been passed in this suit and in payment of the amount which the Court may adjudge due to the plaintiff in respect of such costs of this suit and such costs, charges and expenses as may be payable under rule 10, together with such subsequent interest as may be payable under rule 11 of Order XXXIV of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, and that the balance, if any, shall be applied in payment of the amount due to defendant No. 2 ; and that if any balance be left, it shall be paid to the defendant No. 1 or other persons entitled to receive the same ; and

(iv) that if the money realised by such sale shall not be sufficient for payment in full of the amounts due to the plaintiff and defendant No. 2, the plaintiff or defendant No. 2 or both of them, as the case may be, shall be at liberty (when such remedy is open under the terms of their respective mortgages and is not barred by any law for the time being in force) to apply for a personal decree against defendant No. 1 for the amounts remaining due to them respectively.

5. And it is hereby further ordered and decreed—

(a) that if defendant No. 2 pays into Court to the credit of this suit the amount adjudged due to the plaintiff, but defendant No. 1 makes default in the payment of the said amount, defendant No. 2 shall be at liberty to apply to the Court to keep the plaintiff's mortgage alive for his benefit and to apply for a final decree (in the same manner as the plaintiff might have done under clause 4 above)—

*(i) that defendant No. 1 shall thenceforth stand absolutely debarred and foreclosed of and from all right to redeem the mortgaged property described in the Schedule annexed hereto and shall, if so required, deliver up to defendant No. 2 quiet and peaceable possession of the said property ;] or

*[(ii) that the mortgaged property or a sufficient part thereof be sold and that for the purposes of such sale defendant No 2 shall produce before the Court or such officer as it appoints, all documents in his possession or power relating to the mortgaged property ;

and (b) (if on the application of defendant No. 2 such a final decree for foreclosure is passed), that the whole of the liability of defendant No. 1 arising from the plaintiff's mortgage or from the mortgage of defendant No. 2 or from this suit shall be deemed to have been discharged and extinguished.

6. And it is hereby further ordered and decreed *(in the case where a sale is ordered under clause 5 above)—

(i) that the money realised by such sale shall be paid into Court and be duly applied (after deduction therefrom of the expenses of the sale) first in payment of the amount paid by defendant No. 2 in respect of the plaintiff's mortgage and the costs of the suit in connection therewith and in payment of the amount which the Court may adjudge due in respect of subsequent interest on the said amount ; and that the balance, if any, shall then be applied in payment of the amount adjudged due to defendant No. 2 in respect of his own mortgage under this decree and any further orders that may be passed and in payment of the amount which the Court may adjudge due in respect of such costs of this suit and such costs ; charges and expenses as may be payable to defendant No. 2, under rule 10 together with such subsequent interest as may be payable under rule 11 of order XXXIV of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, and that the balance, if any, shall be paid to defendant No 1, or other persons entitled to receive the same ; and

* Words not required to be deleted.

(ii) that, if the money realised by such sale shall not be sufficient for payment in full of the amount due in respect of the plaintiff's mortgage or defendant No. 2's mortgage, defendant No. 2 shall be at liberty (where such remedy is open to him under the terms of his mortgage and is not barred by any law for the time being in force) to apply for a personal decree against defendant No. 1 for the amount of the balance.

7. And it is hereby further ordered and decreed that the parties are at liberty to apply to the Court from time to time as they may have occassion, and on such application or otherwise the Court may give such directions as it thinks fit.
